TENDER FOR SUBCONTRACTING EXPERTISE

This is a call for a subcontractor to provide expertise as part of the ETUC project VS/2014/0490 “ETUC action for Worker Participation”.

In order to ensure a large visibility of this tender, the ETUC will publish the tender specifications on its website on Tuesday 10 February 2015 and keep it online for 21 days (deadline for submission of bids: Tuesday 3 March 2015).

I. Background and Summary of the project

The European trade union movement faces major challenges: the ongoing financial, economic and social crisis; dramatically high unemployment, in particular that of young people; the establishment of undemocratic forms of EU economic governance; the ongoing austerity policy and last but not least severe attacks on workers’ information, consultation and participation rights and on collective bargaining; interference in the autonomy of the social partners.

The European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) has always been at the forefront of promoting and strengthening workers participation.

It currently promotes an EU-funded project on Workers participation, which consists of 4 strands:

1) Annual EWC conference

Since several years, the ETUC organises an annual EWC conference, gathering together more than 150 colleagues, mainly from EWCs and trade union EWC coordinators, but also public authorities, business organizations, civil society, researchers and academics, etc. This year’s conference will focus in particular on the preparation of the EWC Recast Directive review (2016), and will include presentations of comparative data and good practices. This European conference will be preceded by a preparatory EWC workshop. Both events taking place in Brussels.

2) Restructuring and anticipation of change

This axis represents a follow up of a restructuring project promoted by the ETUC in 2012-2013 and will allow to evaluate the state of play, draw conclusions and report to the next ETUC Congress (September 2015) with regards to the restructuring situation in Europe. This political assessment will also take into account the possible revision set for 2016 of the Quality framework on restructuring presented by the EU Commission in 2013.

Ten years after the first social partner consultation on the issue, which already identified weaknesses and loopholes in EU rules, the ETUC calls for strong EU action to proactively improve the anticipation of change in workplaces and improve the legal framework in which restructuring takes place.

3) ETUC reflection group on workers’ participation/board level representation (WBLR)

This strand aims at summarising the ETUC policy recommendations to the new EU institutions and will focus on key principles of workers board-level representation. These recommendations will be developed via in depth discussions within a trade union reflection group in view of the SE directive and other company law instruments like cross border merger, but also in view of extending board level representation to other transnational companies. Identification of key principles and explanation of these principles will be done, together with the European Trade Union Federations (ETUFs), and in cooperation with the European Trade Union Institute (ETUI) experts as well.

4) Consolidation of the three directives on workers’ Information and Consultation rights in the form of a recast (follow-up of the “Fitness check”)

The ETUC has already underlined the need to strengthen the general framework directive on information and consultation (EC/2002/14), for instance when the Commission services undertook the “Fitness check” (2011-2012) involving not only Directive 2002/14, but also the Directive on collective redundancies 98/59 and the directive on transfers of undertakings 2001/23. In this “better regulation” exercise, the Commission commissioned a study including a survey with the aim of exploring whether the provisions of the directive were appropriate for delivering the desired results. Part of this survey was a questionnaire sent to the ETUC affiliates and to colleagues at company level. The result of this survey showed that our colleagues detected gaps, uncertainties and practical problems in using the legislation despite the fact that they agreed in general terms that these directives serve its purpose. The overall conclusion made by the ETUC affiliates were that the provisions needed updating.

In its REFIT Agenda (IP/13/891) the Commission announced the “Consolidation of three Directives in the area of information and consultation of workers subject to the results of a consultation of social partners”. The Commission’s objective became somewhat clearer, that this exercise it is not simply a recast of the same text, but a “consolidation” which will possibly amalgamate the three Directives to make them “less burdensome” for business.
Something which, in the opinion of ETUC, is nearly impossible without cutting the rights of workers. Therefore, ETUC is completely opposed to such a deregulatory step and will only engage on such a path if a non-regression approach is guaranteed. The project shall serve to accompany the next steps in the Commission's work programme.

Methodology

As for the past ETUC projects focusing on worker participation rights, the ETUC will act in coordination with its affiliates and especially with the European Trade Union Federations (ETUFs).

A Steering Committee will be working all along the duration of the project, and it will be composed by the ETUC staff involved in the project and representatives of ETUFs. This Steering Committee will also include representatives of the European Trade Union Institute (ETUI) dealing with worker involvement, corporate governance and a "sustainable company" agenda.

This Steering Committee will be in charge of supervising the work carried out by the external expert hereby sub-contracted. The sub-contractor will therefore be invited to attend the Steering Committee meetings, due to take place in Brussels.

The project may also involve the participation of national trade union experts (trade unionists but also academics, researchers, practitioners, worker representatives) in the field of worker involvement for each of the activities. They will be called at providing their expertise and knowledge, with regards to legislation and practices at national level and at transnational level companies.

Main activities

To meet the above objectives, the project foresees the following activities:

1) A preparatory EWC workshop in early summer 2015 (20 persons, interpretation in EN and FR, 1 Day, Brussels) and the Annual EWC Conference in Brussels on 15-16 September 2015, with 150 participants, and 6 working languages.

2) A 2-day Summer School on Restructuring to take place on 19-20 May 2015 in Lisbon (interpretation in EN, FR, DE, IT, ES) with approximately 40 participants (ETUFs representatives, national ETUC affiliates).

3) Two 1-day workshops of the ETUC reflection group (15 participants) on workers involvement / participation / workers board level representation (WBLR), to take place in Brussels (interpretation provided in EN and FR).

4) Three 1-day workshops with ETUC affiliates, in the form of a taskforce on the consolidation of the 3 directives on Information and Consultation (6 working languages: EN/FR/DE/IT/ ES/POL, 35 participants, including one representative per member state + 7 Brussels based persons)
